CCH Partnerships
CCH Editions
ISBN: 9781847988331
£99.95

The Finance Act 2014 introduced significant changes that affect partnerships, with new rules to clarify their tax liabilities. To help you understand these rules, this brand new title offers comprehensive coverage of a range of tax issues together with some non-tax issues which impact partnerships.

As well as endeavouring to simplify partnership tax, the government has also been keen to target avoidance by partnerships, so this title provides timely help to partnerships and their professional advisers. Where it’s helpful, a transactional approach is used to give practical guidance on topics such as basis periods, buying into a partnership and the death of a partner.

Numerous worked examples and a series of case studies help you apply the commentary to real life situations.

The Contract of Employment
Oxford University Press
ISBN: 9780198783169
£145.00

The contract of employment is the central legal institution of modern English employment law. It provides the foundation upon which most statutory employment rights are constructed.

The coverage of The Contract of Employment is unrivalled in its depth, detail and sophistication. The legal analysis is always informed by a keen sense of the modern labour market context of the contract of employment, and it is sensitive to contemporary challenges such as precariousness, the interaction with migration law, the role of legislation in the contract of employment, and the decline of collective bargaining. It will be the principal reference point for the practitioners, judges, and academics concerned with the contract of employment as a legal category, both nationally and internationally.
